Loudoun Recruiting New Members for Economic Development Advisory Commission

The Loudoun County Board of Supervisors seeks candidates for the Economic Development Advisory Commission (EDAC) who are willing to volunteer their time and expertise to promote the economic growth and development of Loudoun County. Applications should be submitted by Friday, September 18, 2015, for consideration.

The EDAC provides a forum through which Loudoun business leaders offer recommendations to the Board of Supervisors and the Department of Economic Development on matters that impact the economic strength of the county.

Members are sought from all parts of the business community. Those who work in the following industries focused on by the Department of Economic Development are particularly encouraged to apply: health information and analytics, aerospace, and information and communications technology.

Applicants must fill out the standard application form available on the county's website at www.loudoun.gov/advisory. The form may be submitted by email to: BOS@loudoun.gov, or mailed to the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors, 1 Harrison Street, S.E, P.O. Box 7000, Leesburg, VA 20177-7000.
